

I wish to comment on how important and educational that K-LOVE radio is to me in San Diego County on a daily basis. I listen to the station every day while driving to work and back. The station gives information, has encouraging music and is a positive alternative to other radio station fomats. I need to have the station available to me every day.